“ Shirlee was the proudest grandparent/ great grandparent aka Nana, I've ever had the privilege of knowing. She was like a mother to my partner and was our oldest daughter's absolute best friend since the day she was born. She acted out of love and kindness and had a small army of grandchildren/ great grandchildren who loved her so very much and she loved them unconditionally, every day in return. She will be very missed by many.

“ As the holidays roll around, a memory that keeps coming to mind was going to Mamaw Shirlee's house around this time to get out all of her Christmas decorations and put them out around the house. We'd all just sit and talk about special decorations or press the buttons to the ones that danced or sang over and over again and laugh or dance along with them. It was always such a special time. This is just one of too many special memories with her to count.
