“ Shirley touched many lives and will be missed by so many. She had a great smile and a very giving, caring spirit. We worked at Sam's and I have many fond memories of times we shared. 20 years ago Shirley gave me some orange poppies that she had started from seeds, I always think of Shirley when they bloom and how thankful I am that our paths crossed. Prayers and thoughts are with all of you.

“ I met Mrs. Davis through her daughter Sheila, have worked with Sheila for many years. each time I saw Mrs. Davis, at a birthday party for Jacob, at Wal Mart where she worked or at the hospital with her husband or herself she always had that sweet smile. A very humble lady. She had such a soft voice. She may be no longer suffering but her family will be lost without her. Rest in Peace Mrs. Davis. Hope that your family find Peace in their memories of you and knowing you are with your husband.

“ Saying goodbye to someone we love is heartbreaking. May you find comfort in knowing that our heavenly Father knows the heartbreak of loss and is here for us as he promised at Isaiah 43:2 "When you pass through the waters, I will be with you, And through the rivers, they will not flood over you. When you walk through the fire, you will not be scorched, Nor will the flame singe you." Although death is the most heartbreaking experience we will ever face we are not left without hope. God promises to bring our loved ones back to life through a resurrection as he promised at, Isaiah 25:8 " He will swallow up death forever, And the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces." How we long for that truly special day to embrace them again!

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I have know Shirley since I was a young girl in grade school. Many, many years. She was my Mom's friend. I know she and Mom are chatting together now :) Shirley also became my sister-in-law. Yep, I married her brother, Alvie (Pete). Shirley was so good to me. She helped me in many ways while living up the hollow. She was a good sounding board too :) She is going to missed by many people. I loved her not only as my sister-in-law but, also as a friend. God bless you Sheila, Angie and Lorne. <3

Lorne
So very sorry to hear about your mom's passing. She was such a sweet and kind lady. Had many nice talks back in the lunchroom at Walmart and she was always so nice to me. She will be missed by many. Keeping you and your family in my thoughts and prayers.
