“ This month makes 6 months since my husband has been gone. My heart aches everyday. I miss him every second of every minute. I still catch myself reaching for the phone to call him when something happens. U were my soul mate, my world, my true love, my best friend, my beginning and ending. Your the best human I've ever known and will know. I love u Sidney and can't wait to see ur smiling face in heaven again.

“ Living out of state I did not see Sydney much. But the times I did I will cherish. He was an amazing husband, father and friend. I've been in his corner willing him to beat the horrible thing that is cancer. I'm sad that it won. Sydney died with something most people don't get though, A once in a lifetime love. Amanda loved him so much. He loved her. They were truly soulmates.

Rest In Peace Sydney

“ I met Sidney the very first day he came into 5S at memorial. I was his nurse for his bone marrow biopsy. His sense of humor was like no other! He was always crackin jokes and we were always laughing. I became close to Him, Amanda and the girls. I always loved being his nurse and talking to Amanda. This truly is heartbreaking and I can't imagine the pain his family is enduring, esp Amanda and the girls! I know he is pain and cancer free rejoicing in heaven! Love ya Amanda and the girls. Here if you need anything, ever! Love, fluff!
