Ken and I were so devastated to hear of Sue's passing. She was such a warm, wonderful, dedicated and caring friend who will truly be missed and never forgotten. We both have many fond memories of our time with her at WVU, and cherish that we could all keep in touch and stay updated on what was going on in our lives throughout the years. Our thoughts are with you as you navigate this difficult time. May her wonderful spirit help guide you and keep you strong.
