

Susan Oliver Hayslett

May 7, 1946 - October 27, 2025

Jo Susan Oliver Hayslett stepped into the glory of her Lord at 3:10am on October 27, 2025.

Born May 7, 1946 in Birmingham, Alabama, she was the daughter of the late Walter "Mack" Oliver and Ruth Miller Oliver of Hurricane WV. She moved to Hurricane in 1957 where she met her lifelong sweetheart of 66 years and husband, Walter "Tim" Hayslett. She graduated Hurricane High School in 1964, later becoming a graduate of Marshall University Nursing School in 1966. She then began her short tenured nursing career at St. Mary's Hospital through 1972. Though still a RN, and proud to say she was a nurse, it was at this time she embraced her true calling, a Wife to one, a Mother to five, and a Grammy to 17, including her 3 great grandchildren.

Susan was a member of First Baptist Church of Hurricane where she was actively serving her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. She was a founding member of the Hurricane Ladies Bible Study group which she served planning studies with her good friends. She also enjoyed playing in the bell choir for the church. Susan loved her "Girls of 64" high school friends and rarely missed their monthly dinners. In her free time, she loved traveling out to the Hayslett family farm with Tim, where she would mow and work in the garden. She always looked forward to family events and holidays especially Apple Butter Day and Christmas. Her greatest joy was when all of her family was gathered together in one place.

In addition to her husband of 59 years, those left to remember her include her siblings: Mike Oliver (Bonnie) of Huntington, WV and Penny Meek of Idaho; children and their spouses: Timmy Hayslett Jr. (Amanda) of Hurricane, Roger Hayslett (Grace) of Milton, Jamie Hayslett (Angie) of Hurricane, Erin Larck (Ryan) of Hurricane, and Eric Hayslett of Hurricane; 14 grandchildren: Alison Teter (Jesse) of Huntington, Kristen Loveday (Michael) of Huntington, Timothy Hayslett III (Jackie) of Milton, Courtney Ballard (Zak) of Milton, Lexie Hayslett of Los Angeles (CA), Mary Hayslett of Huntington, Emily Hayslett of Hurricane, Natalie Hayslett of Hurricane, Brooklyn Goheen of Hurricane, James Goheen of Hurricane, Macey Larck of Hurricane, Brian Goheen of Hurricane, Kellan Larck of Hurricane, and Camden Hayslett of Hurricane; 3 great-grandchildren: Julianne and Brooks Ballard of Milton, and Theodore Hayslett of Milton.

She was of noble character and wise. She was clothed in strength and dignity; she spoke of wisdom and faithful words. She was the foundation of all those mentioned above. Not always seen and never wanting any attention or praise, but always in the background holding firm. Never buckling under the pressure, her faith never wavering. She was always there, a steady presence holding us up with her love.

“ There has never been a truer friend than Susan Hayslett. Her door was not only open to that big family of hers but was always open to me and all her other friends. She was a woman of wisdom, an encourager, often my sounding board, and at times a shoulder to cry on, but always a helping hand when needed. When I think of tea, I will always remember our times around a hot cup of tea; when I think of gardening, I think of Susan; and if ever there was a Proverbs 31 woman, my friend, Susan Hayslett tops the list. I thank God for the 10 years Larry and I lived in WV, so that Susan and I did not just "cross paths", but we forged a friendship. As much as she will be missed by her family, her friends, and her church, let us celebrate the fact that she is with her Savior and Lord!

“ Dear Tim and family,
We were sad to hear that Susan had gone to be with our Lord and Savior. We love both of you so very much and only feel a portion of the pain that you're going through. Susan was a warm and loving friend and was always there to comfort and pray for us during challenging times. She will forever be missed by Jerry and me. Sending prayers for you and your family. “His eye is on the Sparrow” was sung at our Church this morning and it reminded me of true it is that he God watched over my precious cousin and how He continues to watch over those still walking in this land that is not our home. 💕💕

“ Donnie and I send our love and prayers to all the Hayslett family. We are so saddened to learn of Susan's passing. My last conversation with Susan was concerning grandchildren (we share Camden) and how quickly time has flown, how the grandchildren have all grown, and for her how many had married or had taken jobs away. The love she expressed for all of you was evident as she shared your latest achievements. We are praying that God embraces you with His perfect love and peace. Annette

“ Susan was a special person indeed I read where she loved her and Tim’s farm in Mason county I guess you could say I enticed them to start a farm in Mason county for selfish reasons so they would be my neighbor and what a wonderful neighbor both Tim and Susan would be. As Stated I would here those mowers over the hill every Thursday like clock work and I was surprised one day when I saw Susan up on this giant Toro about 15 ft wide sitting on that big machine mowing
The whole family are special people and love their friends and family and opened their doors at the farm every year to strangers for about the best meal and Apple butter you can get
Our family will miss Susan but I do know that as a Christian I will see her now sooner than later and the best way to honor her and her life is to move forward , cherish her memory and be thankful that the Lord shared her with us as long as he did
For me and Annette we are grateful that Susan and Tim put our Camden though one of the best schools in the world where she will graduate this year and go on to concord as a great student and athlete from Calvery baptist accadamy. I look forward to seeing Tim and all the others on the farm that she loved so much.
