

Susan Young

March 7, 1934 - September 19, 2019

Susan Young, 85, of Scott Depot passed away, Thursday, September 19, 2019 at CAMC-Memorial Hospital, Charleston.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Charles “Chuck” Young.

Susan was the matriarch of her family in every sense of the word. She faced every obstacle in life with determination, sass and a lot of stubbornness. Known as “Nana” by everyone, she was famous for her cooking. Her pasta sauce, lasagna, potato salad and cheeseballs were legendary. Her biscuits, however were not. Thanksgiving and Christmas were her favorite holidays and she started planning the menu in the summer. She was a talented seamstress, loved to crochet, work cross word puzzles and was a voracious reader.

She charmed people with her Boston accent and mischievous twinkle in her eye and made an impression good or bad with everyone she met, We’d like to think good.

Left to cherish her memory, and to continue her traditions are her children, Sheryl Witt (Richard), Charlie Young, and Wanda Young (Jimmy). Her grandchildren, Rachel Bramble (George), Meghan Lake (Robby), Ethan Witt, and Nicholas Young and her great-grandsons, Wyatt Lake and Fischer

Bramble.

A Celebration of her life will be held from 3:00pm until 5:00pm Sunday, September 22, 2019 at Chapman Funeral Home, Winfield. You may visit her tribute page at ChapmanFuneralHomes.com to share your memories and stories of our Nana.

“ Sheryl Ann, Charlie & Wanda Sue, I will always remember when you all lived with us. How much fun we had. Aunt Sue shooining Sheryl and I out of the kitchen, after we pretended we were fighting to get out of doing dishes. With Aunt Sue that worked, not so with my Mom. Your Mom was such a part of our lives. Her and Mom's Scrabble games, their names for each other, and their threats if we touched that Scrabble board. I will remember her smile and that she NEVER aged, her sassiness. We all loved her. I know how much losing your Mom hurts. You never get over it, and you never stop missing her. You're all in my thoughts and prayers. I am picturing your Mom with your Dad and my Mom. I hope you do and it gives you comfort and peace. I love you all!
