

Sylvia Blondena Eggleton

April 24, 1919 - June 27, 2017

Sylvia Blondena Eggleton, 98, of Scott Depot, died Tuesday, June 27, 2017 at St. Mary's Hospital after a short illness.

Blondena was born at Garretts Bend on April 24, 1919 to the late Claude and Goldie Mccallister Cash. She was also preceded in death by her husband William J. Eggleton in 2009, brother William "Bud" Cash and sister-in-law, Josephine "Jo" Cash.

Mom loved cooking, quilting, gardening, watching cooking shows and mowing her yard. She loved being a homekeeper. Right up until her illness she was mowing and gardening. Her greatest pleasure was preparing special meals and the "best" cream pies for family and friends. We could always count on our special pie for birthdays and holidays and they will be forever missed. In the last several years she looked forward to her weekly lunches and shopping trips. She lived to know her grandson received the quilt she lovingly made for him years ago for his recent wedding. She also had previously attended church at Scott Depot Church of God, Judson Baptist Church, and Teays Valley Church of God.

Blondena is survived by her son Kenny Eggleton (Karen) of Scott Depot; daughter, Nancy VerBeek (Robert) of Franklin Indiana; grandson Seth VerBeek (Elizabeth) of New York; and nieces Janice Lucas and Janet Cyrus both of Garretts Bend.

Funeral Service will be at 11:00am Friday at the Upper Mauseleum Chapel in Cunningham Memorial Park, St. Albans, with Pastor Arley Cravens officiating. Friends may visit with the family from 10:30 am to 11:00 am at the cemetery. Entombment will follow the service at the cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be sent to either, The Salvation Army at 301 Tennessee Ave Charleston WV 25301; or to Little Victories Animal Rescue at 3589 Wire Branch Road, Ona WV 25545.

“ Our condolences to the Eggleton family. Kenny, instead of sending a flower arrangement to your home Ruby will send a donation to Little Victories Animal Shelter in Blondena's memory from the Class of 1965. We are so sorry for the loss of your precious Mother. I personally have wonderful memories of her!
