“ Hey everyone. Holly here. To me she was known as "Sybie" because my sister and I couldn't say her name when we were little. Honestly there are too many memories to share, from yard selling and doing runway shows on Hillcrest drive when I was little, to growing up and spending the night with her, taking her to the beauty shop, a local diner then a local thrift store even bringing my children to her for her to be their Sybie too. I don't know what I'm going to do, I'm sure there will be days I pick up the phone to call her only for my heart to be broken all over again. Lord I pray you give all of us the comfort and peace we need in this long journey to heal our hearts. I love you so much Syb, go be with Lewis now; and don't suffer anymore.

“ Hi Cheryl,
As you know your mom was one of my favorite customers at Watson's and Peeble's.
After I left Peeble's I would see her in Kroger's and we would hug and talk a while. She was a very sweet lady and just remember all the good time you had together. I will miss seeing her in Kroger's.
Take care and God Bless
