

Sylvia Parkhurst Walker

December 4, 2012

Sylvia Ella Parkhurst Walker, 88, formerly of Scott Depot, passed away Tuesday, December 4, 2012 in Louisville, KY where she made her home the past two years. Born October 31, 1924 in Salem, MA, she was the only child of the late Reginald and Miriam Flanders Parkhurst. She was also preceded in death by her husband, Lawrence, H. "Larry" Walker in 2008. She was a member of The Catholic Church of the Ascension, Hurricane, was a Red Cross Volunteer for over 40 years and had been employed as a secretary with the United Mine Workers Association. Sylvia's kind and generous spirit was obvious to all who knew her - from her career at the UMW, her many hours of service to the Red Cross to her love of her church family. She had about her a gracious strength that came through in all her life's work. As an only child, and given the fact she and Larry had no children, Sylvia's dedication was focused toward her husband and her church. An active parishioner, she shared her faith with many and considered them her family. Mass of Christian Burial will be held at 11am Friday, December 7, 2012 at the Catholic Church of the Ascension, 905 Hickory Mill Road, Hurricane celebrated by Father Harry N. Cramer. Burial will follow in Sunset Memorial Park, South Charleston, WV. Visitation will be held one hour prior to the service in the gathering space of the church.
