

Thomas Homer Martin Sr.

January 24, 1944 - June 13, 2025

Thomas Homer Martin Sr, 81, of Hurricane, West Virginia, passed away peacefully on June 13, 2025. Born in Floyd County, Indiana, on January 24, 1944, Tom lived a life marked by service, devotion, and quiet strength.

Tom proudly served his country as a computer technician in the United States Air Force and continued his career in the civilian sector with the same diligence and dedication. A man of many talents, he found great joy in woodworking, hunting, fishing, and spending time outdoors. He had a deep appreciation for nature, the satisfaction of a well-maintained firearm, and the quiet rewards of a job well done.

Above all, Tom was a devoted husband, father, and grandfather. He shared a beautiful life with his beloved wife, Janice Lou Martin, and was the proud father of Thomas Homer Martin Jr., Rickie Clark, and David Clark. He cherished his role as a grandfather to Desirae, Shayna, Jeffery, Ciarra, Tyler, and Ayden, and welcomed his daughters-in-law—Marilyn, Melody, and Shally—into his heart as part of the family.

Tom's legacy is one of steadfast love, quiet wisdom, and unwavering faith. He believed in the power of family, the importance of hard work, and the comfort of God's grace. He was a man who could fix almost anything, build something beautiful from wood, and offer strength just by being near.

A graveside service honoring Tom's life was held at 11 a.m. on June 20, 2025, at Center Point Cemetery in Liberty, West Virginia. Surrounded by family, friends, and the hills he loved, we laid him to rest with deep gratitude for the life he lived and the love he gave.

Though we mourn his passing, we take comfort in knowing he is at peace in the presence of the Lord. His spirit lives on in every sunrise over a quiet lake, every story shared around the fire, and in the hearts of all who knew and loved him.
