“ My name is Tom Kogan and first of all I would like to express my condolences to the Medvick family for your terrible loss. I was working with Jim the day he fell ill. He always called me TAK (my initials), and on that day he said "TAK , I don't feel well and I am going to go home. I asked him if he wanted me to take him and he said no, I will be O.K. I was shocked later to find out that he went home and died. Jim was a wonderful, honest, caring, person and one of my favorite people at Westvaco. How tragic now to lose your son. I was so sorry to hear and I grieve for you. . You will be in my thoughts and prayers. God Bless

I met Tom about 5 years ago through our both being active in the Southeast Pavement Preservation Partnership and had just met with him a few weeks ago at the annual meeting. Tommy was a good friend from way back. Although as time went on and we both had our own careers we didn't see each other as much. When we did get together it was like we had seen each other the day before. My heart felt sympathy goes to his wife and children, his mother, Johny, Karen and Trisha and their families. I will always remember the smile and togetherness he brought into the room.

Lisa Chaney Rodeheaver

10 April at 10:38 · Edited ·

When I was in the 3rd grade, my family moved to Pine Swamp road, I had to ride the High School bus to catch another bus to St. Francis School. I was a stranger in a strange land, a dorky, shy, little girl with a Dorothy Hamill haircut and a plaid uniform. I was trying to get off the bus--knowing I had to make way through a sea of big kids to find Bus #2, and I had about 30 seconds to do it... I was terrified and none of the big kids were letting me out of my seat- they all just looked at me as they walked by. That was until Tommy Medvick showed up! That day and every day after, he let me out of my seat and told me to have a good day! In the big scheme of things, that may sound like something trivial, but to a little girl, it was a huge thing - one of those embedded impacts I've carried through life. For years, I didn't even know his name. At one of Shari Reuschel's luaus, while marveling at his skills as a drummer, I found out that kind, high school kid was Tommy!!! I got to thank him for making a difference in my mornings and told him he was my 3rd grade hero!. Tommy left this world on Wednesday, unexpected to everyone, himself included....Spread kindness folks, share good things, and let those special to you know just how special they are!

Lisa Rodeheaver - April 12, 2015 at 08:51 AM

I wish I could post all the comments on my Facebook post from other friends who were touched by Tommy's life. Sounds like he was hero to many and a humble one at that. Feel free to look it up, I made it "public".

“ Tom was a gentleman, a smile, a laugh, a "gee wiz" always happy. In my 36 years of working in the construction industry, I could not find a man more dedicated to his work. He loved what he did and his pride showed through. He was approachable, sincere, thoughtful and dedicated to his work and those who worked around him. I only ever saw him slightly worried one time when got us lost in the mountains around Helvetia late one afternoon. He will be surely missed by all. “ I worked with Tom at MCS&T a year before moving to Building 5, Tom was one of the first I met when I came there. Always happy, smiling, so kind, one to talk Mountaineers with, and we also talked about our dogs as we both had bratty labs. You could always count on Medvick for a smile, a laugh or to drop what he was doing to lend a hand. He was so proud of his family and spoke of his kids often. He was one of a kind, a rare gem, and we at Hwys will strongly miss him!!

“ I have many memories of Tommy, from kindergarten through high school. He was always smiling, he was one of the kindest people I knew. I remember when we were maybe 6, my dad had told me as I started school, as a joke, that if any boys tried to kiss me, to punch them in the nose. Tommy tried, I did as dad said, and I bloodied his nose. I wish I had stayed in closer touch with him. My love, prayers, and sympathies are with his wife, children, and entire family.
