“ Tim advised my father, Robert Kushner, for years and after my father's death, Tim helped me and my siblings with our financial decisions as well. I liked Tim alot, because it was more then finances with him, we would talk about family and life in general. He made you feel confident that he was taking care of you. I will greatly miss his advice and talks.

“ I knew Tom for almost 30 years. He was a honorable man, worked hard and loved his children. He was so trustworthy as a financial adviser I had my own mother and father invest their money with him. He was a son of Marshall and a true gentleman. He fought kidney disease bravely and with no complaint. He has been taken away too soon. Well done friend. May your memory be eternal.

I am so embarrassed that I didn't spell check before I posted and called Tim, Tom. My fat fingers hit the O right next to the I. Sorry Tim!

“ Tim was a great investment advisor. He helped me start my accounts, my daughter and her husband’s accounts, and all four of my grandkids accounts. We had a lot of good conversations over the phone. Along with his family, I will miss him greatly! We talked about family, business, religion, the stock market and many other topics. Our sympathy goes out to his girls and their mom! Ed and Tammy Deline Ansted, WV

“ To Tim's family, loved ones and friends:
I am also a Marshall University graduate worked with Tim in Charleston with Wells Fargo Advisors. Tim and I shared so many things in life and after I moved to Parkersburg would often stop in Charleston just to visit with Tim. He spoke often of his girls and was so very proud of them. My heart is broken today learning of Tim's passing. May God flood your hearts with the very good memories you have. God Bless! Tad Wilson
