“ Words can't tell how my heart breaks for you guys. I can't even imagine what you are going through. I know he was very much loved. Every time I woke up last night, it was on my mind. I will continue to pray that God puts his big arms around all of you to help ease your pain.

So saddened to hear that's such a sweet boy. I know how much love you gave him Deanna .It was so obvious every time we saw you together he was happy. He was always a good sport on our Bowling team too. He will be missed more than he realized. My prayers and thought with you.

“ I didn't know TJ, but I know good things are remembered by many. I am a family friend/neighbor and my heart is breaking for them. No parent should ever bury their child. Please know that you are in my thoughts and prayers.

Tanner Figgatt - December 05, 2020 at 12:27 AM

“ I did not see TJ and my family as often as I should have. However, the pictures and stories his mom and grandmother posted, made me feel like I lived next door. I was able to experience all the holidays, family celebrations, and fun times. I will not forget TJ's quick wit, energy, and handsome face. I know his is and will always be surrounded by those who loved him here and in heaven. Great-Grandma Hayes and Aunt Ann are waiting and will be there to laugh with him and protect him. Love you all!

“ Right now, these photos are my favorite things I own. We forced the kids to pose and re-create photos we took of them when they were little, and they obliged us. He was always a gentleman even escorting me across a 4 lane highway on one of our treasure hunts. I tried shoving the kids by their bottoms and pulling them up by their jackets up a mountain, but Dee was the only one of us who could make it to the top to see the view.

“ My name is Tanner Figgatt, and I was one of TJ's best friends. We met in kindergarten or first grade, I can't remember which. He was always filled with joy. TJ was always the kid who had dry one liners and funny jokes. He always knew how to cheer you up. I remember tenting with him at boy scout summer camp - we tented together every year. I remember that we always had our backs. We had nearly every class together, and we were always right there, together. TJ, I'll miss ya buddy, and that is an understatement. I wish that his parents, Dee and Tom, go through minimal suffering and pain. I have a picture of us somewhere, and boy do I wish I could find it. Love you brother.

“ I’m Nicole Coleman. I was TJ’s 2nd grade teacher. I will always remember TJ as having a smile or a smirk on his face. Everyday when he walked into our classroom, I was greeted with the biggest hello & good morning. He was truly loved by everyone. I loved his laugh. I loved his wittiness. I loved that he enjoyed school. I loved how brave he was. I loved how he was himself. I loved him. I can still hear his sweet 2nd grade voice. I can still see his sweet smile. I can still feel his hugs. I will never forget TJ. He will always be one of my kids ❤️

“ I'm Lisa Keathley. I taught TJ in first grade at Winfield ES. TJ was so excited to give me this inchworm he made for Christmas. He was so proud of it. I have kept it in my curio since he gave it to me. I will cherish it.

He was a cute, sensitive, friendly, smiley, sweet child. He was funny too. I never knew what he was going to come up with next. He will be missed. Love ya, TJ
