“ I am so sorry for your loss. I am the mother of an angel and my maiden name is Salmons. My father was born in West Virginia. I am not sure if we might be related, but just know that my heart is aching for you. I have no doubt your lives have been touched by an angel. I will be lighting a candle for Vermont tonight.

“ Beth and Craig, I have no words to comfort you at this very painful time in your lives. But know that I truly share in your grief and know your sadness. You were blessed with 22 years of sharing Zach's life and you will always have that. He will be in your hearts and memories forever. I still have Zach's feather hanging from the rear-view mirror of my car. Born on my birthday - I will always remember his quick, genuine smile. May God give you strength to go on without him. Love and condolences to you and your family.

“ So sorry Beth and Craig for your loss. I remember the 1st time I met Zach. His whole face just lit up ( not sure if it was for me) or his wonderful mother walking into the room to introduce me. He was so precious and loved. You guys were wonderful with him. My brother is in a wheel chair too and can't do anything for hisself. So I understand the care that goes into a special needs child, but you guys made it look effortless. You could tell how much joy and love you brought to him, and him to you. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family in this very difficult time. If you guys need anything or want to talk, we are here for you.
