

Verna Virginia Brown

November 24, 1919 - August 29, 2013

Verna Virginia Brown, 93, of Charleston passed away peacefully Thursday, August 29, 2013 at the home of her daughter-in-law, Janet Brown.

Born in Boone County in 1919, she was a daughter of the late Griff and Lillian Stone Jarrell. She was also preceded in death by her husband of 57 years, Robert S. Brown and her son, Donald L. Brown.

She retired in 1982 from the Diamond Department Store and was a member of Loudendale Freewill Baptist Church. She, along with her husband, were avid travelers. They visited every state in the US by motorcycle with the exception of Alaska and Hawaii.

Virginia leaves behind a son, Robert E. (Cathy) Brown of Phoenix, AZ; her daughter-in-law, Janet Brown with whom she spent her last years; her grandsons, Donald B. Brown of Charleston, Donald S. and Robert Brown both of Phoenix; her granddaughter, Tina L. Griffith of St. Albans. She also leaves behind three great-grandchildren Gracen, Cole and Chloe as well as several nieces and nephews.

A celebration of Virginia's life will be held at 11am Saturday, September 7, 2013 at Bartlett-Chapman Funeral Home, 409 Sixth Avenue, St. Albans.

Visitation will be held one hour prior to the service. You may visit www.chapma nfuneralhomes.com to share condolences.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggests memorial contributions be made to Hospice Care, 1606 Kanawha Blvd., West, Charleston, WV 25387.

The family would like to express their sincere appreciation to Hospice Workers, Mary Motley and Carla Zielinski for their help and to Jean Love, Virginia's caregiver, for being there.

“ I always loved visiting with my Great Aunt Virginia. She had so much spunk and life about her that I always admired. Only Aunt Virginia could get me to eat a tomato with salt on it that got me hooked for life. Unfortunately, it's been several years since I last saw her. I'm sad to hear of her passing, but now she's with all those that have gone before her. With Love, Melissa Jarrell.
