“ The one thing I remember most about Aunt Wanda was that she would get on to you and put you in line in a minute. But, She always let you know it was because she cared. She was a wonderful Aunt and I loved her dearly. I have a lot of good memories with her. She will be sadly missed ,but not forgotten.. I WILL ALWAYS LOVE YOU.. R.I.P

“ Such a sweet Christian lady, she was. I had the pleasure of meeting her and enjoying her company when she would visit her son and his family in Pawleys Island, SC.
I know she now walks with her Lord and savior. ❤️

“ Dear Doug, I just saw the post about your moms passing. I am so sorry for your loss. You know there is rejoicing in heaven though. We have been out of town since Christmas Day but my prayers are with you and your family. I loved your moms smile, I know she will be deeply missed. Hang onto the promise that we will see them again one day. I love you friend.

“ My most favorite memory of aunt Wanda is going with her family to Myrtle Beach for the first time and seeing the ocean for the first time. Debby and I had so much fun. Aunt Wanda Lee and uncle John treated me like their own. And also Debby and I spending the night with each other. I will always remember the good times I had at aunt Wanda Lee's house. R.I.P. I love you...
