

Wayne A. Crowder

April 30, 1951 - September 27, 2024

Wayne Allen Crowder 73, of Charleston, WV passed away Friday, September 27, 2024.

He was born April 30, 1951 in Charleston, WV to the late Lud and Mary (Young) Crowder of Campbell's Creek. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his brothers: Howard Crowder and John B (Janet) Crowder.

Wayne is survived by his son, Aaron Crowder (Maryellen); daughters, Tara Tackett (Ben) and Sarah Hovis (Chad); grandchildren: Sam, Ella, Will, Lillian and Violet; brother: David (Laura) Crowder and several nieces and nephews.

Wayne was a graduate of DuPont High-school and West Virginia State College. After retiring from Dow Chemical as a chemical operator, he was elected to the Kanawha County Board of Education where he proudly served. Wayne also worked at the Public Service Commission.

He was a Beni Kedem Shriner, Mason, Kentucky Colonel, and a member of the order of the Eastern Star.

The family would like to thank Teays Valley Center for the love and care they offered Wayne in the last year and a half of his life. A special thank you to the rehab department at Teays Valley Center for keeping him mobile until his last days and a special thank you to Wayne's neighbor, Bill Melton, who was a friend and neighbor, always watching out for Wayne.

We are honoring his wishes that he be cremated and services are pending at this time.
