“ I want to express my deepest sympathies to the Durham family for your loss. Paula was my son's teacher at West Teays Elementary. Knowing what a wonderful person Paula is, I have no doubt that her son was too. May God bring strength, peace and comfort to all the family. May the Eternal light shine upon Bill and may he rest in peace.

“ Mary, Mr. & Mrs. Durham and Children,

I am so sorry to hear about Bull, my heart was truly broken when I heard of his passing. Unfortunately, I did not know about his funeral until it was too late to make his service. I want you to know that he held a special place in my heart. You raised a great young man always ready to serve his country at a moment's notice, when I called him for the start of Desert Storm, he said I'll go with no hesitation. He always had a smile and a hug for me when he came into the Clinic. I hope you take comfort knowing God will enjoy this young man and will take great care of him till the day we all see him again.

Take care and may the Lord comfort your grieving hearts.

“ Polly, Bill, Mary Jane, Anna and Will. We are so sorry to hear about Billy. I always loved Billy as a child. Those blue eyes were always special when he would look at you. I have enjoyed him on Facebook and getting to know him as an adult. I know he had a deep love for all of you. I am sure he was welcomed with open arms by his grandmother and the sisters.

Our prayers are with you. I am sorry we could not be there for you today, but we are there in love.

Last year, I gave the eulogy for my father and in my eulogy, I included the lyrics for the Bugle Call "TAPS." Bill is the closest thing I had to a Brother so I see it only be fitting that I include Bill in this Rite as well.

*Day is done, gone the sun,
From the lake, from the hills, from the sky;
All is well, safely rest, God is nigh.
Fading light, dims the sight,
And a star gems the sky, gleaming bright.
From afar, drawing nigh, falls the night.
Thanks and praise, for our days,
'Neath the sun, 'neath the stars, neath the sky;
As we go, this we know, God is nigh.
Sun has set, shadows come,
Time has fled, Scouts must go to their beds
Always true to the promise that they made.
While the light fades from sight,
And the stars gleaming rays softly send,
To thy hands we our souls, Lord, commend.*

God Speed my Brother, until we meet again. Hooooaaahhh!!
