“ My prayers and thoughts are with all of the family. I have been so richly blessed by the time I spent with Glenn and Boots during the years I lived in West Virginia. They have been outstanding examples of Christian believers whose example I have attempted to follow. Their influence has spread far and wide through everyone with whom they came in contact. Glenn and Boots' examples are alive through the lives of their sons and extended family. Glenn and Boots leave behind an outstanding legacy that is unequaled.--

“ I know Glenn's passing will leave a hole in the lives of you Templeton boys, but I can't tell you how many stories I'd heard about your family before I met any of you. Danny and Dwight loved the whole family and I envied your closeness. I think I actually met Glenn and Boots at Cincinnati Bible Seminary (as it was called in those days) before I met Helen and Colen...and wished Boots was my future mother-in-law since Helen wasn't so sure that anyone named "Reenie" was good enough for her boy. (Thank God, we now are closer than many biological mothers and daughters). Boots, however, was all smiles and hugs and I felt a loving welcome.

Glenn has shaped so many young men of Gateway -- you can be proud of his legacy!

We heard many beautiful stories of this precious family at Owensboro Christ Community Church. We can't wait to hear many more. I can tell by looking at the photos what a love he and his bride shared. Blessings and peace to the whole family is our prayer.
