

William Vaughan Rowan

December 26, 1921 - June 17, 2014

William "Bill" Vaughan Rowan, Sr. of St. Albans, West Virginia, passed away peacefully on Tuesday, June 17, 2014, at Hubbard Hospice House West, South Charleston.

He was born in Gap Mills, West Virginia, December 26, 1921, to Edwin C. and Fannie M. Vaughan Rowan, he lived most of his life in St. Albans, West Virginia.

Bill, a Navy veteran of WWII, was a devoted Christian, husband, father, and friend. He spent his life loving, serving, and advising. He worked well into his 80s because of his dedication to, and the friendship of his clients. He was in every way a trusted professional, an absolute gentleman, and ultimately someone who cared for so many, in all walks of life, in his own quiet way.

His loving wife of 65 years, Margaret Burdette Rowan, brother, Edwin Rowan, and sister, Virginia Pyle have passed on before him. His sister Frances Keenan, three sons William "Vaughan" (Cher), John (Cheryl), and James (Susan) Rowan, eight grandchildren and four great-grandchildren will go on loving and missing him.

The family wants to express special thanks to Hubbard Hospice House West and the Reverend Loretta Isaiah for her loving care and support. In lieu of flowers; donations to Saint Andrew United Methodist Church, 815 Kanawha Terrace, St. Albans, WV 25177 in his memory are suggested.

The family will receive friends from 6 to 7:30pm Friday, June 20, 2014, at Bartlett-Chapman Funeral Home, 409 Sixth Avenue, St. Albans, WV.

Funeral services will be at Saint Andrew United Methodist Church in St. Albans on Saturday, June 21, 2014 at 4:00pm.

Bill will be laid to rest at Cunningham Memorial Park in Saint Albans.

“ *It was hurtful to find out your father had passed and we could not be there to show our concern and presence. Your father was a dear friend of my late husband and myself. We love and cherish memories of both of your parents.
