

Yova Clark

September 4, 2012

After a long illness, Yova Courtney Clark, formerly of St. Albans, passed away on Tuesday, September 4, 2012 at the home of her beloved cousin, Marilyn Gaunch, of Charleston. In years past, Yova was an active member of First Christian Church in St. Albans. She had also been an active member of the St. Albans Woman's Club, and was retired from Kanawha County Schools. She was preceded in death by her parents, Ward and Lena Courtney; husband, Jack L. Clark and sister, Annabelle Massey. Survivors include her son, Michael Clark and wife Brenda of Beckley; sister, Janice Campbell of St. Albans; three granddaughters, one grandson, five great granddaughters, and two great grandsons; several nieces and nephews and great nieces and nephews. Yova was a very warm and loving person and had many, many friends in her life time. Her family cannot find words to express their gratitude, appreciation, and thankfulness for the abundance of love and excellent care that Marilyn, her extended family, and Sandi Bate and Tia Lanham provided for Yova. Services will be held at 2:00 pm Saturday, September 8, 2012, at Bartlett-Chapman Funeral Home, 409 Sixth Avenue, St. Albans with Ed Gaunch officiating. Entombment will follow in Cunningham Memorial Park, St. Albans, at the upper mausoleum chapel. Visitation will be held one hour prior to the funeral service. In lieu of flowers, please send donations to Emmanuel Baptist Church Building Fund, in memory of Yova Courtney Clark, 1401 Washington Street W., Charleston, WV 25387.
