

Yvette Parker

July 21, 2012

Yvette M. Parker, 59, of St. Albans passed away Saturday, July 21, 2012 at Thomas Memorial Hospital, South Charleston. She was born December 26, 1952 in Herne Bay, England to Ramona Keating Skeen of St. Albans, with whom she made her home, and the late Selmer V. Skeen. She was also preceded in death by a brother, David Skeen. Yvette was retired as a clerk from the U.S. Postal Service. She was a member of The Crossing, St. Albans. In addition to her mother, she is survived by two brothers, Thomas and wife Karla Skeen of Rushville, IN, Gary Skeen of Leesburg, VA; sister-in-law Donna Skeen of Charleston; nieces Elizabeth Skeen Jobe and Elisha Skeen of Rushville, IN, Heather Skeen of Chicago, Ill., Jenna Skeen of Charleston; nephews Joshua Skeen of Holland, MI, Nick Skeen of Leesburg, VA, and Brendan Skeen of Huntington; two great nieces, one great nephew and many friends. Fellowship and a celebration of Yvette's life will be Tuesday, July 24th from 5-7 p.m. at The Crossing (formerly Trinity Baptist Church) 2031 Harrison Ave. with Pastor Stan Smith officiating. Entombment will be in Cunningham Memorial Park Mausoleum, St. Albans. Donations in Yvette's honor can be made to The Crossing Church Children's Program, 2031 Harrison Ave. St. Albans, WV 25177.

Tribute Wall

“ Yvette Parker

October 06, 2023 at 08:41 AM